Contents

FROM THE ASSOCIATION v

WHY AND HOW THIS BOOK WAS WRITTEN viii

THE 1954 YEARBOOK COMMITTEE xii

CONTRIBUTORS xii

INTRODUCTION: WHAT THIS BOOK IS ABOUT 1

PART I: TEACHERS IN ACTION DEVELOP A GOOD ENVIRONMENT FOR LEARNING

CHAPTER I. Diary of a First-Grade Teacher 15

CHAPTER II. A Day in a Primary Grade 33

CHAPTER III. Seven Years in a Rural Upper-Grade School 57

CHAPTER IV. A Seventh-Grade Group in a Suburban Junior High School 87

CHAPTER V. A Slow-Learning Group in a Large City Senior High School 105

CHAPTER VI. Community Service of High School Seniors 139

PART II: THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT IS A PRODUCT OF MANY FORCES

CHAPTER VII. People Are Important 150

CHAPTER VIII. Physical Resources Are Important 201

CHAPTER IX. Learning Experiences Are Important 225

CHAPTER X. Evaluation Is Important 250

A SUMMARY 275

BIBLIOGRAPHY 279

ASCD BOARD OF DIRECTORS 306